Organizers of this event, along with the St. Bernard Parish Government would like to extend your experience as a volunteer reenactor by offering several social activities upon completion of the daytime events. These activities are free to the first 100 reenactors who register, and offered at a very reasonable cost for those registering beyond the first 100 persons. Please help us finalize these activities by indicating your interest in participating.

Social activities are scheduled on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings after Jackson Line North daytime events have concluded.
